

RESUME

Name: Philippe Noth

Date of birth: July 15, 1967

Address: rue du Port 26
1815 Clarens
phone: 021/981 14 44 or 079/305 53 50
e-mail: pnoth@worldcom.ch

Marital status: single

Nationality: Swiss

Languages

- French: native tongue
- German: spoken and written fluently
- English: spoken and written fluently (diplomas Oxford and TOEFL)
- Italian: spoken fluently

Education:

- 1990-1994: Fribourg University, mathematics studies with computer science as option
- 1987-1990: EPF Zürich, computer department
- 1982-1986: Collège St-Michel, Fribourg
- 1973-1982: primary and secondary school

Diplomas:

- 1995: degree in mathematics, Fribourg University
- 1986: federal maturity type C

Tasks, achievements:

- since 1996: system developer II in the KUKOBEZA project (postal accounts) at Postfinance, Bern:
 - maintained and fine-tuned the large Oracle/Rdb customer database, wrote various SQL scripts
 - wrote Javascript and VBA procedures to tailor the web-based defect tracking tool
 - designed and implemented the Motif interface for the new features of the postal account
 - acted as system manager and installed software releases on the OpenVMS platform
- 1994-1996: programmer/analyst with PL/OpenSQL and OpenRoad under the Ingres database system with Syslog Informatique SA, Fribourg
- 1989-1994: VMS system administrator and product manager for the wordprocessor WordPerfect under OpenVMS and DOS/Windows
- 1986-1989: programmer and translator (German-French) for Syslog Informatique SA, Fribourg and Systime AG, Zürich

Interests: travels, hiking, badminton, squash, science